Notice to Advertisers.

In our efforts to facilitate the handling of the large amount of advertising matter the News is now carrying, it is earnestly requested that all advertisers hand in their copy for changes on Wednesday and Saturday of each week, for the issue following, which will enable us to give a better service. We would greatly appreciate any effort on the part of the advertisers to have their copy in the hands of the printers on these days.

W. R. Thomas Dies of Pneumonia

Mr. W. R. Thomas, aged 51 years, died at his home in Winchester Sunday night at 10:15 o'clock, after a short illness of pneumonia. About a week ago Mr. Thomas was taken suddenly ill with the gripe, which later developed into pneumonia, and since last Wednesday night his condition had been such that his family and physicians despaired of his recovery.

Mr. Thomas was a son of the late Capt. J. W. Thomas, one of the most central figures among the business men of Bourbon county, was born in this county and here spent the greater part of his life.

Upon the death of his father, Capt. Thomas, he gave up the management of the Estill Springs hotel, near Irvine, in which business he was engaged, to assume the management of the extensive lumber business at Ford, with his headquarters at Winchester, locating there about three years ago.

His life in Winchester was one of unusual business activity, and he devoted much of his time to the interests of that city.

As a director of the Blue Grass League, much of the credit of the success of the organization is due to its efforts in its behalf.

The news of the death of Mr. Thomas was received with deep regret by his host of friends in this city. Immediately upon the receipt of a message announcing his death, Dr. W. C. Usery, President of the Blue Grass League, and Mr. Sherman Stivers, left for Winchester, making the trip in an automobile, where he, acting for the directors of the League extended his sympathies to the bereaved family. While in Winchester Dr. Usery selected a very handsome floral offering as a token of the esteem and affection in which he was held by the members of the board.

He is survived by his wife, who before her marriage was Miss Carrie Hanson, of Paris, one son, Hanson, one daughter, Miss Ethel, one brother, R. L. Thomas, of California, who was at his bedside when he died, and one sister, Mrs. John Ireland, of Lexington.

The funeral will be held at the family residence in Winchester Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. J. H. McNeal, of Winchester, assisted by Elder Carey E. Morgan of Paris.

The pall-bearers will be as follows: Honorary—R. L. David, of Ford, Ky.; Dr. H. H. Roberts, of Lexington; C. L. Pendleton, W. H. Garner, Dr. B. F. Johnson, Thos. Hampton, Strawther Goff, John S. Reese, C. E. Givens, C. W. Burt, Dr. C. H. Reese, E. S. Jouett, B. R. Jouett, of Winchester. Active—H. H. Phillips, Louis Hampton, Wallace Reese, Chester Reese, Dr. D. H. McKinley, Jeff C. Stuart, Jack Lisle, and Walte Rounsabell, all of Winchester.

THE A TO Z

of the whole clothes problem is style. Clothes without style cover the body, to be sure, but so would a barrel.

To make "HIGH ART" Clothes premier in style is the be-all and end-all of the makers' striving.

Judge us by our "HIGH ART" Suits for Spring. They're as distinguished looking as a West Pointer on parade.

Our Clothes lend the poise correct and the "air" aristocratic.

They are cut with a flowing grace far removed from angular fashion plates.

The custom tailor? Pooh! We out-tailor him on his own ground. Prices $20 to $30.
